MEDIA RELEASE (For Immediate Release)

Temporary One-Way Street Traffic System for Jalan Tun Sambanthan and Jalan Sultan Abdul Samad (includes several key areas in Brickfields)

Kuala Lumpur, 28 July 2010: All traffic and road users to and from Brickfields are advised that Jalan Tun Sambanthan, Jalan Tun Sambanthan 4 and Jalan Sultan Abdul Samad will be temporarily converted into a one-way traffic system beginning 3rd August until 29 October 2010. It is to facilitate works for Package 3, part of the overall Upgrading Traffic System for Brickfields, Bangsar and Kuala Lumpur Sentral. The package 3 road upgrading works is aimed at alleviating the daily traffic congestion in Brickfields.

Traffic from Kuala Lumpur (Central Market/Jalan Istana)

Road users are advised to take note that traffic from Kuala Lumpur City Centre (from the direction of Central Market) and Jalan Istana towards Brickfields (Kuala Lumpur Sentral or KL Monorail) would now be diverted. All traffic from those directions are now required to turn into Jalan Sultan Abdul Samad via Jalan Tun Sambanthan 3 (at the junction to Petronas station) or Jalan Tun Sambanthan 4 (at the junction to YMCA & Public Bank) to get to Kuala Lumpur Sentral development and to the shops along the KL Monorail stretch of Jalan Tun Sambanthan. Traffic then will be required to make an exit at Jalan Berhala or exit at the intersection between Jalan Sultan Abdul Samad and Jalan Tun Sambanthan (La Salle School) to move on to Jalan Tun Sambanthan to reach to their destinations.

Traffic from Jalan Bangsar/Jalan Travers

All traffic and road users from Jalan Bangsar and Jalan Travers will also be affected. Road users are now only allowed to make a left turn into Jalan Tun Sambanthan towards Kuala Lumpur (towards the KL Monorail/YMCA direction). Those going to Taman Seputeh or Jalan Syed Putra will now be required to use Jalan Tun Sambanthan (towards YMCA) onto Jalan Tun Sambanthan 4 to Jalan Sultan Abdul Samad and reaching the intersection to Jalan Tun Sambanthan (on the left side) to get to Taman Seputeh.

Traffic from Taman Seputeh/Jalan Syed Putra

Traffic from Taman Seputeh and Syed Putra will not be affected, while traffic beyond the affected stretch will remain operational as normal.

Jalan Sultan Abdul Samad and parts of Jalan Tun Sambanthan will be temporary converted into a one-way street for 3 months. Only Jalan Sultan Abdul Samad will revert back to a two-way traffic system upon completion of package 3 Upgrading traffic system at Brickfields.

Public transport vehicles using Jalan Stesen Sentral 3 would be required to heads towards Central market via Jalan Tun Sambanthan before getting into Jalan Travers to get back to Brickfields and the Kuala Lumpur Sentral development.

All motorists are advised to exercise caution at the road works areas and reduce speed in these restricted areas for the duration while the construction works and traffic management are in operation.

Dewan Bandaraya Kuala Lumpur (DBKL) wishes to apologise to all road users for the inconvenience caused. Kindly seek public understanding and patience to bear with the temporary diversion due to the upgrading of road works.
